2023 WOODSTOCK SUMMER CONCERT SERIES LINEUP ANNOUNCED

WOODSTOCK, GA: During his 2023 State of the City Address on Friday, Woodstock Mayor Michael Caldwell announced the lineup for the 2023 Season of Woodstock Summer Concert Series.

“I hope you were able to join us last year for the Summer Concert Series. From Sister Hazel to Scotty McCreery, Woodstock, you showed up to play,” said Mayor Caldwell. “It’s not unexpected to find our concerts yielding thousands in attendance, and this year is shaping up to be the biggest ever.”

The season opens on Saturday, May 13th with chart-topping country singer-songwriter Craig Morgan. Hits like “Redneck Yacht Club” and “International Harvester” will have downtown Woodstock rocking. Saturday, June 10th, Rick Springfield takes the stage at the Northside Hospital-Cherokee Amphitheater. It will be a moment to remember when the Australian-born musician and actor sings his Grammy-winning number one hit “Jessie’s Girl”. Bruno Mars Tribute, Uptown Funk, will bring that twenty-four-carat magic to the July 8th concert. Concertgoers will want to jump when another great tribute act, Completely Unchained, performs Van Halen’s greatest hits on August 12th. The season ends on September 9th as southern rock icons Drivin N Cryin rock the stage with original hits like “Fly Me Courageous” and “Straight to Hell”.

“Woodstock Parks and Rec is adding a lot of value to already great sponsorship packages this year,” Mayor Caldwell stated. “If you’ve been thinking about partnering as a sponsor on this outstanding event series, this is the year to commit.”

For information on sponsorship, contact City of Woodstock Special Events Coordinator Marybeth Stockdale at 770-592-6000 ext. 1952. Additional details will be announced online at woodstockconcertseries.com in the coming weeks.
